

Chuck Nelson

Everett native, graduated University of Washington 1982. 5 years in the National Football League. Returned to Seattle area, 15 years in the investment management industry. Executive Director of the Boeing Classic PGA Champions Tour event from 2004 through 2009, now VP Business Development, Sila Solutions Group, a business and technology consulting company. Live in Mill Creek, wife Nanette, two children (Emma, 19, sophomore at University of Portland, son Quin, 16, sophomore at Archbishop Murphy High School). Color commentator on Husky football broadcasts since 1990. Member Washington Athletic Club, 101 Club, Everett Golf & Country Club, Seattle Golf Club, Regence BlueShield Community Board, Founder and Board member of Coastal Community Bank. Former President of the Board of Directors for Boys & Girls Clubs of Snohomish County, Boys & Girls Clubs Northwest Regional Council.