

Deputy Chief of Staff Joe Woods provides a wide variety of high level support to the Executive, including providing strategic counsel, and managing his County Council relations, council legislative affairs and external issues.

Woods most recently served as the Executive's council relations manager. Previously, he was policy director for Constantine when he served on the King County Council. Woods has also worked in senior level positions on numerous campaigns. Prior to that, Woods spent several years in investment banking, helping small businesses raise start-up capital.