

Kyle Griffith

Education

Mercer Island High School class of 1998

University of Washington BA History 2002

Bio

Kyle was born and has spent his entire life in Seattle. He is an avid Seattle sports fan and an especially big UW fan. Kyle grew up working in his families business started by his father Hal. Currently, Kyle is the Vice President the Great Western Pacific and is the operations manager for Pier 57 and the restaurants and shops located there. In addition to the pier, the company owns and operates the Crab Pot and Fisherman's Restaurants located in Bellevue Washington and in Southern California. Kyle likes to golf, fish, ski and play basketball.

Community and Other Activities

Broadmoor under 40 member

Seattle Yacht Club member

WAC member

Tumble Creek at Suncadia family member